

CONDO ASSOCIATION & BOARD TRAINING

COMPREHENSIVE TRAINING FOR NEW OWNERS

FREE!!

“Developer Turnover: How To Start the Board Off Right and Protect Yourself in the Process”

FREE!!

Are you a member of a condominium association that has been or will be turned over from the developer to the owner-controlled board? Do you understand the laws as set forth in the Illinois Condominium Property Act and other statutes, and their application to the management and operation of your community association? Ensuring that the developer and new board has met their fiduciary obligations—especially within the first year—is crucial to protecting your interests and that of your Association. This FREE workshop covers important legal & start-up association topics every Association leader must understand.

With Guest Speakers

Mr. John Bickley III, Attorney, Kovitz, Shifrin, Nesbit, a leading Chicago-area law firm specializing in condominium association law

Ms. Angela Falzone, Property Consultant, Association Advocates Inc., a firm providing training and technical assistance to condominium associations

Thursday, September 20, 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Albany Park Chicago Public Library

5150 N. Kimball Ave. (at Foster)

This program is FREE, but space is limited. Advance registration required to reserve seats. For more information or to RSVP, call (773) 381-5253 or email: brenna@lakesidecdc.org.

Workshop presented by Lakeside CDC, a nonprofit housing agency, with support from the Chicago Department of Housing and ACTHA, the Association of Condominium, Townhome, and Homeowners Associations.

Visit www.lakesidecdc.org to learn more

Sponsored by
RAVENSWOOD BANK